HON HUNTER MARSHALL, Member of the House from Kentucky. [Upon his rising, there were three cheers for him, three for Henry Clay, and three for Millard Fillmore.] Mr. Marshall deemed it a great privilege to address the citizens of New-York upon an occasion like the present, when they were met to do justice to a man like Mr. Fillmore. He did not come to do himself any good, but to do good to the country. He was very deeply interested in the papers for the past two months. He said, he came to speak of the Whig party and its condition. There was a great difference between principle and policy; policy depended for its propriety on circumstances, principle never did. As for instance, the Whigs were divided about a Bank of the United States; policy at one time supported it, at another rejected it, but those who were opposed to this view were none the less Whigs. Whig principles would be the same whether the country were divided or not. He said the first principle of a Whig was to love his country and his whole country; none could be otherwise without being an order, property, law. A true Whig is an advocate of order, property, law. A true Whig is an advocate of the rights of the people. A true Whig is an advocate of the rights of the people. A true Whig is an advocate of the rights of the people.

Since Saturday last, the following named persons have died suddenly in our country, and inquests have been held by the Coroner: Lydia Scott, aged 14 months, drowned at Nicotown; Patrick Buckley, aged 70, dropped dead in Kensington; James Buckley, 50 years of age, found dead in Roxborough Township; and James Gillen, aged 35 years, found dead in bed at his residence in West Richmond.

A young lad named Sullivan, was run over at Eighth and Sunnyside, last week, by an omnibus, and died yesterday, from the effects of the injury. The driver of the vehicle is under arrest.

Gen. Pillow, late of the army, is sojourning at the Merchants' Hotel in this city.

WEST INDIES.

The British schooner Favorita, Capt. Higgin, has arrived at this port with letters from Bermuda, Demerara, Barbados, &c. The F. sailed from Bermuda on the 25th ult.

The Governor has issued his proclamation that the Colonial Parliament meet on Tuesday, the 25th day of May, ensuing, for the dispatch of public business.

The Bermuda Gazette of the 13th ult. says:—A large number of emigrants arrived at the port of Bermuda, on Wednesday and Thursday last. They did not appear to have been in the water above eight or nine days. They were quite sound. Doubtless, they came from some vessel that has been wrecked in our neighborhood.

We have received some splendid returns from the plantations in the month of December last, which have been taken up within the past few weeks; in several instances ten and twelve to one, and in one instance fifteen to one. We trust the crops generally will be remunerative. There were, we understand, many bales planted this year as the last by fire and drought.

The Gazette of the 20th, says: The quantity of produce shipped at Barbados, up to the 24th March was 12,379 hogs, 632 tonnes, and 1,405 barrels sugar, and 342 puncheons, 75 barrels molasses, for the most part sugar.

The advice from Demerara are to the 2d ult.

We learn that the fever was greatly abating in that colony on the 2d inst. Latterly its ravages were not confined to sailors, Portuguese immigrants and Europeans, but had extended among the Creole population. Jean Baptiste Van Waterschoot, a Frenchman, and George B. R. N. Stipendiary Magistrate, were among the deaths by fever.

Two more vessels with immigrants had arrived at Demerara—the Solonia, from Rio Janeiro, with 124 Africans, and the Coripora, from the same port, with 110.

The bark David Luckie, Captain Close, which left Demerara on the 27th Feb. last, was destroyed by fire on the 20th, supposed to have originated in spontaneous combustion. Crew saved and carried into Bolivia.

A Mr. Cowen had arrived in Demerara from Cuba, for the purpose of trying to introduce the cultivation of rice into that colony. Heavy rains had set in.

On the 24th ult., the Court of Policy met for the discussion of the contemplated constitutional changes. The bill introduced appears in The Colonist of the 31st. The general opinion of the Court was in favor of the bill, for the requirements of the colony; but it will, for the present, be accepted.

TEXAS.

Exciting News from Rio Grande City and Brownsville. From Hines, by the Citizens' Six Mexicans Shot in Camp—Probable Murder of Mr. Thomas H. Harris of Rome.

We have Brownsville papers to the 28th of April. The Rio Bravo of that date contains the following: A party of gentlemen arrived last evening from Rio Grande City, Texas, by the Citizens' Six Mexicans Shot in Camp—Probable Murder of Mr. Thomas H. Harris of Rome.

When Mr. P. was asleep he was set upon and his brains beaten out by these fellows for the sake of his money and effects. Information was given by the party that the boy, a party of citizens, started out in pursuit, and one of the fellows was taken. After a regular trial he was hung by the citizens of Rio Grande City in presence of the whole people, all concerning just before his execution. He was a native of the State, and a party started from Rome, crossed the river, and returned with the other fellow who had assisted at the murder of Mr. Patton—he was also hung. But the work was not yet finished. A party started out, and near the mouth of the river, under the shade of a large tree, they were waiting for the party that was to be executed. They were waiting for the party that was to be executed. They were waiting for the party that was to be executed.

Since writing the above, we have seen a letter from Rio Grande City, in which it is stated that the murders were committed by a party which belonged to the party organized on the right side of the river, but the purpose of murdering Americans on this side of the river, and that a large number of the gang are still on this side.

MEXICAN RUPTURE—AMERICAN SETTLERS DRIVEN FROM THEIR HOMES. The house of Mr. A. J. Edmondson was attacked on Friday last by the Indians, including himself and two or three other persons, were unconscious of any danger. Upon going outside, they were met by a party of Indians, who were surrounded by Mexican robbers, who upon their appearance, commenced firing upon the house. Seizing their arms, which were unfortunately not in condition for use, he called upon the others to follow, made a rash dash into the line, and succeeded in making his escape. Many shots were fired, but he escaped without a wound. One man, however, had three balls through his shirt.

Proceeding to a ranch at some distance, they obtained assistance, and prepared for future operations. The place had been completely robbed of everything it contained—all the household furniture, provisions, clothing, and the most valuable articles were carried across the river, and the Indians were left with only their horses and mules, driven off as they believe, in the direction of Matamoros, on the Mexican side of the river. A skirmish across the river took place between the parties, and the robbers, in defiance of the American on the river, and kill them if they could. They said they were setting under the orders of Gen. Canales, and they intended shortly to attack and sack Brownsville. Threats of the kind have frequently been made, but persons over the way, and it is said, have many instances, come from Mexican officials.

All the settlers on the River are arming themselves, and are prepared for future operations. It is believed that the North should meet on the same platform as the South, and settling aside all sectional feelings, they should stand together as one people, and maintain peace and civilization. The great point that will meet the attention of the people, and the principal thing for them to do, is to make themselves on every man that is brought forward, every one of our newspapers, that starts out to influence you, that is plain and honest, but to patriotic principles. He desired to speak frankly to men having the same interests, and he hoped the same case in view, upon a matter of importance to all true National Whigs who are bound to act together.

The speaker then retired, amid a good deal of applause, in the course of which one hundred and thirty-five persons, Mr. Gentry, turning round, begged to be excused on the score of an excess of modesty. The band then struck up and the assemblage dispersed.

The Call of the meeting stated that speeches were expected from his South and gentlemen, and Messrs. Lord's and Messrs. of this City; but

DEATH OF M. ST. CLAIR CLARKE.—The Washington Republican announces that Matthew St. Clair Clarke died in that city on Thursday, in the 60th year of his age. Mr. Clarke was a native of the State of Pennsylvania. He was for many years Clerk of the House of Representatives, and was subsequently Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department.

THE ANNIVERSARIES.

New-York City Temperance Alliance.

A large and respectable meeting of the friends of the Maine Liquor Law was held last evening in Metropolitan Hall. Mr. C. C. Leigh, President, in the chair. The proceedings were commenced with prayer by Rev. Mr. Westcott. The following resolutions were then read by Rev. Mr. Warren, and adopted unanimously:

1. Resolved, That in the general course of events, since the formation of this Alliance, we have increased conviction of the propriety and necessity of those great objects of pursuit specified in the Constitution, viz: the enactment and execution of laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating drinks, and the nomination and election to all legislative and executive offices, of such men as shall be known by pledge or otherwise to favor the cause of temperance.

2. Resolved, That the Members of Assembly from this City who voted against the Temperance Law, acted in opposition to the best interests of the people of this City, and that the Members of the Senate who voted against the Temperance Law, acted in opposition to the best interests of the people of this State.

3. Resolved, That the Members of the Senate who voted against the Temperance Law, acted in opposition to the best interests of the people of this State, and that the Members of the Assembly who voted against the Temperance Law, acted in opposition to the best interests of the people of this City.
